

SATSA TOURISM SAFETY NETWORK

Rules of Engagement

Together, let's ensure this network remains a valuable, safe, and professional resource that enhances our collective ability to navigate the dynamics of our industry.

PURPOSE

- Provide a reliable source of tourism-related safety information.
- Facilitate swift and efficient information sharing during both routine operations and incidents.
- Support a culture of preparedness and responsiveness among members.

CONTENT GUIDELINES

Members should ensure all content:

- Is verified by credible sources.
- Maintains industry reputation and is not harmful to any individual.
- Complies with legal requirements.
- Respects privacy and copyright, avoiding copyright infringement, discrimination, and privacy breaches.

RULES OF ENGAGEMENT

- Information Relevance: Share only verified tourism safety information from credible sources. Uncertain? Please contact an admin to verify.
- Constructive Communication: Maintain solution-oriented discussions.
- Timing: Post emergency information only between 21:00 and 06:00.
- Professional Conduct: Uphold respectful, constructive dialogue at all times. Discrimination, harassment, or inappropriate content is not tolerated.

MODERATION

- Report violations directly to group administrators.
- Administrators may remove non-compliant content or members.
- Transgressors may be required to apologise.
- Repeated violations may result in removal from the group.

Individual opinions expressed do not reflect SATSA's official position.

SATSA bears no responsibility for agreements or transactions facilitated through this group.

These terms may be updated to address community needs and legal requirements.

Members will be notified of significant changes. Participation in the group indicates acceptance of these terms, which can be found at www.satsa.co.za
